

Important Message from CKCF Organizers

Announcement: Postponement of the Canadian Kidney Cancer Forum (CKCF) originally scheduled for April 2-3, 2020

The Organizing Committee for the Canadian Kidney Cancer Forum (CKCF) has been continuing to monitor the very fluid situation relating to COVID-19 (“coronavirus”). We have had to consider the following: the integrity and purpose of this multi-disciplinary research meeting, the safety and well-being of the attendees and the patients they work closely with and the financial implications.

After careful consideration, we have made the difficult decision to postpone the Canadian Kidney Cancer Forum (CKCF) until Fall 2020 or later. We recognize this causes a significant inconvenience for our international and local speakers, attendees and sponsors, but we hope you will all understand why this decision was made. We will be sure to contact you with a rescheduled date when available and hope to see you all then.
